NETWORKING RECEPTION ON THURSDAY, JULY 13 FROM 6–8 P.M.

One of the major benefits of an international nursing education conference is having the opportunity to develop relationships and share best practice ideas with peers. On Thursday evening, July 13th, join DI Associates and meet other conference attendees for an opening reception at the Sheraton Albuquerque Uptown.

SPEAKERS

DONNA "IGGY" IGNATAVICIUS, MS, RN, CNE, ANEF

Donna is nationally and internationally recognized as an expert in nursing education through her work experience, publications and speaking engagements. Her 8th edition of Medical Surgical Nursing: Patient Centered Collaborative Care, co-written with Linda Workman, was published in February 2015. As President of DI Associates, Inc., Donna provides curriculum and accreditation consultation and presentations.

DEANNE A. BLACH, MSN, RN

Deanne is a nurse educator who has used concept mapping for over a decade. Her most recent project was contributing 12 concept maps in the 8th edition of Medical Surgical Nursing: Patient Centered Collaborative Care. Deanne is co-author of Teaching Nursing Using Concept Mapping (2008) and developer of many concept maps for nursing books.

JUDITH HERRMAN, PhD, RN

Judy is an Associate Professor and Assistant Director at the University of Delaware. She has a passion for nursing education, creative teaching strategies and enhancing realistic learning experiences. In 2015, her 2nd edition of Creative Teaching Strategies for the Nurse Educator was published.

CHERIE R. REBAR, PhD, MBA, RN, COI

Cherie is currently a Professor of Nursing at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio. She has served for a decade in nursing education leadership and administration, and is a 2010 American Association of Colleges of Nursing Leadership for Academic Nursing Fellow. Cherie also contributes to a variety of nursing publications and conferences.

NICOLE HEIMGARTNER, MSN, RN, COI

Nicole is an Associate Professor of Nursing with a passion for engaging learners in multiple learning environments. She is a certified expert in online nursing education and contributes to numerous publications regarding quality and safety in the provision of nursing care using the QSEN competencies.

MICHELE DECK, MEd, RN, LCCE

Michele is a nationally recognized expert and consultant on creative ways to teach nursing and healthcare content to diverse audiences. She has conducted over 1000 staff development classes over her past thirty years of teaching.

STEPHANIE M. FOX, PsyD

Stephanie received her doctorate in Clinical Psychology from the Arizona School of Professional Psychology. She co-authored the chapter, "Care of Transgender Patients," in Ignatavicius and Workman's Medical Surgical Nursing: Patient-Centered Collaborative Care (8th and 9th Eds.) and has presented at the local, state and national level on health needs and health care of LGBT individuals.

PRE-CONFERENCE SESSIONS

THURSDAY, JULY 13

(Each session includes one 15 minute break, with exception of Session A, which includes two 15 minute breaks.)

7:30 Pre-Conference Registration & Refreshments

8:30 Pre-Conference Session A (Full Day):

Preparing for CNE Success: An Application Review Course - "Iggly"

This session assists nurse educators in preparing for the Certified Nurse Educator (CNE) Examination to validate expertise in their role. Participants will have the opportunity to assess their strengths and areas for further study through practice questions and other interactive learning activities. Study and exam taking tips will be emphasized to ensure your success in becoming a CNE!

(Please Note: This session is scheduled from 8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.)

8:30 Pre-Conference Session B (Half Day):

Is QSEN Still Alive in Your Classroom & Clinical Practicum? - Heimgartner

As we celebrate over 10 years of the QSEN Initiative, research shows gaps in its implementation in nursing education. In this session, tangible strategies that directly help you connect your teaching to each of the QSEN competencies will be addressed. Whether you teach in the F2F, online or hybrid classroom or clinical, this session is for you!

8:30 Pre-Conference Session C (Half Day):

Incorporating LGBT Health in Nursing Curricula - Fox

Past and current research consistently reveals significant health disparities for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) individuals. This seminar will increase your knowledge in LGBT health, demonstrate how this content can be incorporated in your curriculum, and address how to best serve your LGBT nursing student population to bolster the culturally-inclusive classroom.

11:30 Lunch (on your own)

1:00 Pre-Conference Session D (Half Day):

Topsy, Turvy, Turn Your Teaching Upside Down - Deck

This session will allow participants to engage in active learning techniques that can be used to flip the classroom. These strategies will help students to critically think and clinically reason.

1:00 Pre-Conference Session E (Half Day):

When It Is Your Circus: Succeeding as an Administrator/Leader - Rebar

Accepting an administrative leadership role in a nursing education program is a monumental step in a nurse faculty member's professional journey. In this session, you will gain meaningful "words of wisdom" and come away with either a survival kit for the new nursing administrator or an energizing refresher for the existing nursing administrator or leader.
